KENOSHA – A series of free concerts in the Lincoln Park Flower gardens will kick off with a performance by the UW Parkside Jazz Combo at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 10. Randle and Company Band will take the stage for the second half of the jazz program.

Lincoln Park Live, sponsored by the City of Kenosha, the Mary Lou and Arthur F. Mahone Fund and the Kenosha Community Foundation, will continue with performances at 6:30 p.m. Thursdays, Sept. 17 and Sept. 24.

The Lincoln Park Live concert series began in Lincoln Park about 10 years ago, but had been discontinued in recent years.

The Greater Mt. Hebron Praise team will kick off an evening of gospel music on Sept. 17, followed by Demascus 180. Pastor Thomas and New Brighter Day Church will wrap up the evening's performance. On Sept. 24, rhythm and blues will be on tap, with a performance by Laurie Lewis and Company.

People are encouraged to bring a lawn chair or a blanket. Parking is allowed on the north side of Martin Luther King Drive. Refreshments, including beer and wine, will be available for purchase.
