Subject : Big shotz formal complaintTo : Mknight@kenosha.org, district8@Kenosha.govReply To : Lindsaypostt <Lindsaypostt@Gmail.com>

This is a formal complaint against big shotz bar. Recently the citizens of the surrounding area filed a petition requesting suspension of their cabaret license. Over the next couple weeks the problems calmed down a bit, but now they have started again. We the citizens and business owners in thiw district are requesting the city take action and suspend their license.

Thank you,
Lindsay Post

Petition to Action

Petition summary and background	Big Shotz Bar 3000 Roosevelt Rd. Has proven to be a hazard to the community. Their entertainment they provide on Saturday nights draws gang activity among other crime to our neighborhood. It causes community resources such as police, firefighters and paramedics to be over used on the tax payer's dime. When half of the police squads on duty are called there every Saturday night it leaves the rest of the city unprotected. As Citizens and Business owners in this community we are urging that action be taken by the city of Kenosha to suspend any if not all of their licenses until further notice.
Action petitioned for	We, the undersigned, are concerned citizens who urge our leaders to act now to suspend Big Shotz cabaret license or any other licenses they may have that are causing problems with gang violence, noise disturbance and disorder to our relatively quiet, working class community.

Petition to Action

Petition summary and background	Big Shotz Bar 3000 Roosevelt Rd. Has proven to be a hazard to the community. Their entertainment they provide on Saturday nights draws gang activity among other crime to our neighborhood. It causes community resources such as police, firefighters and paramedics to be over used on the tax payer's dime. When half of the police squads on duty are called there every Saturday night it leaves the rest of the city unprotected. As Citizens and Business owners in this community we are urging that action be taken by the city of Kenosha to suspend any if not all of their licenses until further notice.
Action petitioned for	We, the undersigned, are concerned citizens who urge our leaders to act now to suspend Big Shotz cabaret license or any other licenses they may have that are causing problems with gang violence, noise disturbance and disorder to our relatively quiet, working class community.
