Dear sirs and Madams,

Ms. Sherry Sentieri filled in for one of our office assistants, who went on maternity leave for 10 weeks. Sherry was responsible for answering the phone and handling customer concerns and orders. She followed all the office policies and learned her duties in few days. Sherry was on time everyday and never missed a day.

Cordially Yours

June Phillips

City Council Members:

I've know Sherry for several years and she also worked for me at Colman Cable before I moved to Las Vegas. She was a model Employee. Sherry was always responsible and on time every day. Sherry worked in the returns and Repack Department. She was a lead responsible for directing a small group of co-workers (2-4 associates). She was timely, courteous, and respectful to everyone she encountered.

Mike Bergehoff

To whom it may concern:

This is a letter of reference for Sherry Sentieri in regards to her Kenosha bartender license, Sherry has been helping out at Champions for 3 years now. She cleans, stocks, unlocks the door for bartenders. Counts the till and makes change for large bills when needed. She would like to work as a fill bartender when needed in the event a bartender is out ill or if a shift cannot be filled. She has had a town of Bristol license with which she served bar patrons in the town of Bristol. She was responsible for the bar till, stocking and cleaning.

Sincerely

Jim Banner

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Staff Sergeant Michael McCann. I am current resident of the City of Kenosha and am currently serving as the Comptroller Chief for the 9th Marine Corps District at Naval Station Great Lakes, Illinois. Over the past several months I have had the privilege of knowing and interacting with Mr. Derek Leggett in the performance of his duties as a Bartender at Mike's Chicken and Donuts. In every instance I have witnessed, Mr. Leggett displays an unrelenting work ethic, attention to detail in the performance of his job, and a high degree of moral courage far above and beyond his counterparts in the service industry.

Based on my over 10 years of experience in the Marine Corps, having worked in the service industry prior to enlisting, and coming from a family with over 60 years of combined food and bar service related experience, I feel like I have come to know and expect certain characteristics from individuals in the service industry. Mr. Leggett is a true master of his craft and is genuinely passionate when it comes to providing a unique and pleasant experience for all patrons visiting his establishment. He is quick to take customer orders, relentless in ensuring accuracy, apt to accommodate any requests, and does this all with 100% of his being with a warm welcome and a smile.

His work ethic is only multiplied when factoring in his attention to detail. Through my observation I never witnessed him fail to ask a customer for proper identification prior to serving them. In several instances I have seen him turn away customers, even "regulars", for not having valid forms of identification proving they are of age to consume alcohol. A consummate professional, Mr. Leggett takes the time to explain the laws he is instructed to uphold and the liabilities to not only himself but the business as well.

These traits are only outweighed by his impeccable moral courage. Many individuals I have come across are only concerned about themselves and what they might receive in tips. This is not Mr. Leggett. Above anything else, I believe the thing he values most is the safety of his customers. Refusing to serve someone who has had too much or asking people if they need a cab or have a ride requires impeccable situational awareness and immense intestinal fortitude. When placed in a situation that could affect the safety of an individual or the customers around them, I have never seen Mr. Leggett fail to take appropriate action.

It is my hope that my testimony will give you a clear insight to Mr. Leggett as a person and the innumerable assets he offers to the service industry. For any additional questions or concerns, feel free to contact me at (843) 441-9581 or via email at mmccann87@me.com.

To Whom It May Concern,

Derek Leggett is a most competent server and worker. I can always rest easily when he is on the floor and know that he will follow all rules that apply to the serving and consumption of alcohol. He is diligent when it comes to carding every customer he serves. I feel that he would be even more of an asset to our establishment with his City of Kenosha bartenders license.

Thank you,

Steven Thompson

April 25, 2016

To Whom it May Concern:

Derek Leggett has been employed with Mike's Chicken & Donuts since 06/04/2015 as a bartender. During his employment with us, Derek has been an exemplary employee. He arrives for his scheduled shifts on time, is a team player who works very well with other employees, provides excellent customer service, and is very strictly follows the rules of the bar. He diligently checks ID's of customers and has never had to be reminded of that.

I feel that Derek is a valuable asset to our team at Mike's. He manages to put the business needs and well-being first, while not sacrificing the customer's experience. Derek has great growth potential with us, so we respectfully ask you to consider granting his bartender's license at this time. We have no doubt he take this responsibility seriously.

Derek, thank you...heavenly wonderment on a rainy, crummy yet Halloween day...food, drink, service and entire experience was catered to us to perfection. Thank you a million times over...pass it on. I heart Mike's (and Derek)...the experience is what you put in too. We were tired and cranky and could have been frustrated with the fact that it was raining when we wanted to be at a football game but just opened up to our server wanting to help us out and he helped make it a perfect day. We watched the game on our phones, waited out the rain and drank our "pumpkin" beers and were treated like royalty 😊 Kids carved THEIR pumpkins too! Amazing!
