To Whom It May Concern:

This letter acknowledges my acquaintance with Brandy Hickey, whom I met several years ago. The circumstances in which we met did not paint her in the most favorable light; however she had a willingness to change the direction her life was going in. During the initial phase of our relationship there were struggles for her. She was in a situation where she had to choose a different lifestyle, that included different people, different choices, and a totally different way of life. It was tough for her as she still felt the need to do things her way, of her own accord. Needless to say, her choices won out. The next time we met, I saw the change. She was stronger, she had been through some things, she had grown up and into a responsible young lady, not afraid of her issues, not afraid of her past mistakes, especially not afraid to share them. I have known Brandy for a long time and she is mature beyond words, however she has evolved into that maturity, through her experiences. She has learned from her mistakes and has completely changed her thinking and the way she chooses to handle everyday issues that come up in her life. She is pro-active in making things happen for her, rather than sitting on the sidelines and waiting for something or someone to make it happen for her. She now has a deep understanding of her past issues, and how they have played a role in the direction of her life at that time. She has overcome those issues and others that have come up along the way, and she has handled them without expecting things to naturally go her way because she is doing the right things in her life. I think the most important thing about Brandy is she never gave up wanting to turn her life around. She reaches out when she feels it is necessary, however maintaining her independence and standing on her own. She has become a responsible person, who is not afraid of the person she is becoming. Should you have any further questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at 847-693-1873.

Respectfully Submitted,

To whom it may concern

I represented Ms. Brandy Hickey during her criminal proceedings in Kenosha Wisconsin. Ms. Hickey was charged with, Credit Card-Fraudulent Use (<=$2500) Retail Theft-Intentionally Take (<=$2500) Retail Theft-Intentionally Take (<=$2500) Possession of THC, all misdemeanors. She ultimately was convicted of Credit Card- Fraudulent Use and Possession of THC.

Ms. Hickey was given a time served sentence and a fine. She was then extradited to Illinois for a short prison sentence stemming from the same incident that crossed over state lines.

Upon release Ms. Hickey contacted me regarding custody of her children. I represented her through that process, and she now has custody of her children.

When I first met with Ms. Hickey after her release I almost didn't recognize her. The transformation was stunning. She looked healthy and was well put together. She had a new air of confidence about her. She knew what she wanted out of life and was determined to get it. Gone was the frail, shy girl she had once been. Where she was a follower, she now was a leader. Brandy immediately cut ties with old friends and bad habits. She got 2 jobs and worked diligently to be able to provide a home and a life for her children. She has been successful in those endeavors.

I talked with Ms. Hickey extensively about how she turned things around in her life so quickly. I was so impressed with her. She told me about the hard work she had done on herself while incarcerated. She took domestic violence classes, substance abuse classes and counseling.

I have never seen a client make such a transformation! If correction is the goal, Ms. Hickey has reached and surpassed that goal.

Ms. Hickey has paid her debt to society and is deserving of a chance to better her life for herself and her children. I can't say enough how proud I am of her.

I sincerely hope you will take into consideration how far Ms. Hickey has come in life and forgive her past.

If I can be of any assistance please don't hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Laura A. Walker
