KENOSHA- Everyone is invited to enjoy an evening of free entertainment and a picnic dinner at the City's National Night Out community festival from 5 to 7 p.m. Tuesday, August 6 at Roosevelt Park.

Alderspersons Brandi Ferree, Ruth Dyson and Peni Keeling will serve free hotdogs, chips and cookies to those attending. The Kenosha Traveling Tap will be on hand with fresh, cold water.

Enjoy family-friendly music from Midwest DJ Productions and be sure to check out the Kenosha Police Department K-9 unit demonstration.

Visit the Kenosha Public Museum and Dinosaur Discovery Museum area for fun activities. Sign up for a library card and check out books at the Kenosha Public Library's Bookmobile. More than 20 schools and non-profit groups participating in the event will give out information and promotional items.
