KENOSHA- Local non-profit organizations are invited to participate in a National Night Out community festival from 5 to 7 p.m. Tuesday, August 6 at Roosevelt Park.

A free picnic dinner, family-friendly music and a Kenosha Police Department K-9 unit demonstration are among the highlights. Several local schools, the Kenosha Public Museum and Kenosha Public Library will be participating.

Non-profit groups can set up a table in the park to give out information or promotional items. There is no cost for non-profit groups to join the festivities, but they should confirm attendance by emailing: kkochman@kenosha.org by August 2, 2024.
